WHY CHOOSE OUR BREAKDOWN COVER?

If you have ever broken down you will know only too well the difficulties faced in arranging the recovery of your vehicle. On top of that, there is the pressing problem of how you will continue to your destination.

Just one call to our 24-hour helpline is all it takes to get you moving again. An operator will immediately be dispatched and wherever possible a roadside repair will be carried out allowing you to continue your journey with the minimum of fuss. If this is not possible you will be recovered to the nearest suitable repairer, your onward destination or home address, whichever is nearer.
